

THE EGYPTIAN FOUNDATION OF CLINICAL PHARMACY EFCP

ONCOLOGY 101

OVERVIEW

This program is designed to acquire the basic theoretical and practical knowledge of clinical oncology pharmacy practice to serve as the first level of qualification to practice in an oncology care setting.

MODERATORS

This course is moderated by clinical pharmacy practitioners, clinical pathologists, consultant oncology physicians from renowned oncology hospitals and universities

CERTIFICATION

This program is certified by The Egyptian Foundation of Clinical Pharmacy as the first level for certification to practice in Oncology care setting.

AUDIENCE

Physicians and Oncology pharmacy practitioners

PROGRAM

Introduction to Oncology

At this workshop the learners will get familiar with the basic science of pediatric oncology disease, pathophysiology, epidemiology, pathogenesis and origin.

Introduction to ALL

At this workshop the learners will be explained the basic etiology, epidemiology, diagnoses and treatment guidelines as well as drugs that are used in the treatment and how to properly administer and follow up according to protocol.

Introduction to AML

At this workshop the learners will be explained the basic etiology, epidemiology, diagnoses and treatment guidelines of AML as well as drugs that are used in the treatment and how to properly administer and follow up according to protocol.

NHL

At this workshop the learners will be explained the basic etiology, epidemiology, diagnoses and treatment guidelines of Non-Hodgkin Lymphoma as well as drugs that are used in the treatment and how to properly administer and follow up according to protocol.

Solid Tumors

At this workshop the learners will be explained the basic etiology, epidemiology, diagnoses and treatment guidelines of solid tumors as well as drugs that are used in the treatment and how to properly administer and follow up according to protocols

